Handwritten text in a South Indian script, likely Grantha or Tamil, covering the entire length of the palm leaf. The script is finely etched into the surface of the dried leaf. The text is arranged in a single horizontal line across the length of the leaf. There are two distinct circular holes visible, which are traditional for threading a cord to bind multiple leaves into a book format. The leaf itself is a light tan color with some darker staining and wear along the edges.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1) as $t \rightarrow \infty$. It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are bounded and tend to zero as $t \rightarrow \infty$ if the matrix A is stable. The second part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1) as $t \rightarrow \infty$ if the matrix A is not stable. It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are unbounded and tend to infinity as $t \rightarrow \infty$ if the matrix A is not stable.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, possibly a list or a series of notes. The text is written in a dark ink on a light-colored, aged paper.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a list or account, covering the top half of the page. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. It appears to be a list of items or a record of transactions, with some lines starting with what might be numbers or specific identifiers. The handwriting is fluid and characteristic of a historical cursive style.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a list or account, covering the bottom half of the page. This section contains several lines of text, some of which are more legible than others. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear. The text seems to continue the list or account from the top half of the page.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page, with some lines appearing more prominent than others. The handwriting is characteristic of a historical cursive style, possibly from the 16th or 17th century. The text is organized into several lines, with some lines being more densely packed than others. There are some small, dark spots or holes in the paper, which are likely due to age or damage. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but aged historical document.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is organized into several lines. The script is dense and difficult to decipher, but appears to be a form of historical or religious writing. There are some larger, more prominent characters or words that stand out, possibly indicating a title or a significant section. The overall appearance is that of an old, well-preserved but still fragile document.
